The Questions of the Hour Discussed in Many Counties.

SILVER AND SOUND MONEY ADVOCATES.

At Chatham the Republican Orators Were Prevented From Speaking by Free-Silver Obstructionists—Sound-Money Advocates Are Badly Treated.

GOOCHLAND, C. H., VA., Sept. 21.—Special.—A very large crowd of the voters of Goochland listened to a joint discussion between Captain Lamb, candidate for Congress from the Third district, and Mr. Carter Atkinson, representing "free silver," and Barton Wise, representing sound money.

Captain Lamb opened the discussion, and was followed by Mr. Wise, who made a clear and able presentation of the sound-money side.

Mr. Wise was followed by Mr. Atkinson, who made a clear and able presentation of the free-silver side.

Mr. Wise's close was very felicitous and, although a large majority of the crowd was against him, he commended the attention and respect of those who heard him.

Captain Lamb closed the discussion.

CLYDE, VA., Sept. 21.—Special.—The Silverites and Republicans held separate meetings.

This September Court-day will be remembered in the history of this county as a political field-day. It is understood that the opposing candidates for Congress from this district would meet here in joint debate to argue the questions of the hour, before the people.

Colonel McColl, the Republican candidate, was to speak first, but he was prevented from doing so by the Silverites, who were determined to prevent him from speaking.

Well-Authenticated Stories of the Most Inhuman Barbarities.

THE ARMENIANS TREATED HUMANELY.

In Comparison to the Horrible Atrocities Committed Under the Name of Battles, Old Men, Women, and Children Killed and Left in the Fields.

HAYANA, Sept. 18, Via KEY WEST, FLA., Sept. 18.—Well authenticated stories of barbarous acts by the Spanish troops continue to reach here. Recently the Havana papers published an account of an alleged battle near Chacabuco de Arce, in which, after an hour's desperate fighting, the Spaniards drove the rebels, killing nineteen and taking many prisoners. The papers suggested that the Government should reward Colonel Aguilera, the Spanish commander, for his bravery.

THE BATTLE.

The facts in regard to the "battle" are as follows:

On September 15th ten rebels went to attack a guerrilla band, which had started from Yaguajay to the field. When the rebels, in answer, were ready to attack they found a strong line of soldiers coming toward them. Hidden in high grass, the rebels let the soldiers come close, and then fired a volley, killing two officers and wounding three soldiers. The troops fired back a volley into the grass, hitting nobody, as the enemy could not be seen.

MARY ABERNATHY RELEASED.

Her Case Was Nolle Prosequi at Farmville Yesterday.

BROUGHT TO RICHMOND LAST NIGHT.

And Greeted Here by an Enthusiastic Crowd of Colored People—Story of the Trials She Has Undergone—Twice Sentenced to Death.

By the release from jail yesterday of Mary Abernathy, one of the most remarkable cases that has ever engaged the attention of the Virginia courts is brought to a close.

As will be remembered by readers of The Times, Mary Abernathy and Poky Barnes, who were charged with the murder of Mrs. Lucy Jane Pollard in Lunenburg county, on June 14, 1894, were tried before the County Court of Prince Edward, sitting at Farmville, some months ago. This trial, which was on a writ of error, granted by the Supreme Court, was the conviction of Mary Abernathy, who was sentenced to be hanged July 18th last. The case against Poky Barnes was nolle prosequi, upon request of Commonwealth's Attorney A. D. Watkins, and was set free.

TAKEN TO LYNNHURST.

Mary Abernathy and Solomon Marable, who had previously been sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Mrs. Pollard, having confessed his guilt, were taken to the jail at Lynchburg, where counsel for Mary Abernathy took her case to the Supreme Court on writ of error. Marable was hanged at Farmville July 21st last. Mary Abernathy lingered on in the Lynchburg jail while her counsel were active in her behalf, finally obtaining a writ of error from the Supreme Court.

The prisoner was yesterday taken before the County Court of Prince Edward, sitting at Farmville, where she was tried on a writ of error. Captain A. B. Gault, one of her counsel, was on hand; Judge H. W. Flournoy and Captain George D. Wise, who also defended her, were present, and she was unable to be present.

As soon as court convened, ex-Judge A. D. Watkins, Commonwealth's Attorney, asked and asked consent of the court to enter a nolle prosequi in the case. In view of the circumstances that have surrounded the case, it being very similar to that of Poky Barnes, Judge Gault, who presided at the trial, was unable to proceed to the trial, and the case was set for the next term.

This order was wired to the Lynchburg official. Meanwhile Captain Gault, who was in the city, was unable to proceed to the trial, and the case was set for the next term.
